

Meet the Business    You. Corporate Leader. Fierce Competitor.

And why we drive technology to drive business forward.

Every year the bar rises. Heck, every month. So how do you meet it? Beat it? Every day? This is exactly why Nortel Networks has spent over a century pushing networks to drive business forward. To deliver services that keep you, and business people like you, more informed, more productive, more competitive. With arguably the broadest and deepest portfolio in the industry, both carriers and businesses turn to us to transform their networks to better serve themselves and their customers. To open new opportunities, new markets, new ways to stand out. With expertise that spans an unequalled optics to wireless to packet networking, no one is better poised than Nortel Networks to infuse new or existing networks with the intelligence and adaptability to help drive business in revolutionary directions. Solutions that are ever more efficient. And affordable. Quite simply, we deliver technology that makes business work better. So you work better.
